Here is another clarification on the subject:

By Pepe on Tuesday, October 10, 2000 - 01:25 am:

I just cooked some adobo pork spare ribs. Super sarap talaga. I experimented a little bit by putting a little bit of five spice powder with the usual adobo TSB ingredients (toyo, suka at bawang). Sarap din ang labas. Don't put a lot though. Just sprinkle some 5 spice powder. It's quite overpowering if you put too much of this powder. (5 spice powder is Ngo-Hiong in Chinese).

Here is the recipe for Chinese Five Spice Powder:

How To Make Five-Spice Powder:

Five-spice powder encompasses all five flavors - sweet, sour, bitter, pungent, and salty.

In a dry skillet, roast 2 teaspoons of Szechuan peppercorns by shaking the pan over low to medium heat until the aroma of the peppercorns is released (about three minutes). Grind the roasted peppercorns and 8 star anise in a blender or pepper mill. Strain the blended seasonings. Mix in 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves, 1 tablespoon ground cinnamon, and 1 tablespoon ground fennel seeds. Grind the seasonings until very fine. Store in an airtight container.

Tips:

Use five-spice powder sparingly, as it can be quite pungent. If desired, you can substitute black peppercorns for the Szechuan peppercorn, and ground anise for the star anise (use 4 teaspoons of ground anise).

Brush edges of wrapper with water and fold wrapper in half to form a triangle. Pinch edges to seal. Pull two opposite corners together, moisten one corner with water, and overlap with the other corner; press to seal. Cover filled wontons with a clean dry towel.

Chinese Crullers

Ingredients

- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 teaspoon alum
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 3/4 teaspoon ammonium bicarbonate
- 7/8 cup water
- 2 cups all purpose flour
- 8 cups oil for deep-frying

Directions

Place salt, alum, baking soda, and ammonium bicarbonate in a mixing bowl. Add water and stir until thoroughly dissolved. Add flour. Stir with chopsticks to make the dough soft and smooth.

Knead the dough until it is elastic.
Cover and let stand at least 4 hours.

Remove dough and stretch it into a long strip, 1/3-inch thick and 2 inches wide.
Sprinkle with a little flour.

Using a knife or cleaver, cut dough into 20 strips 1/2-inch wide. Pick up a strip from the end with a spatula, turn it around and place it directly on top of the next strip (10 pieces).

Lay a chopstick on top of these double strips. Press down. Repeat process with remaining pieces.

Heat oil for deep-frying. Pick up one double strip. Hold the two ends and stretch it until it is 9 inches long.

Drop into hot oil. Turn dough on both sides continuously with chopstick until it is golden brown and expands. Remove and drain. Repeat with other strips.

May be prepared in advance and refrigerated or frozen. Before serving, thaw, if necessary, and reheat in oven at 400 degrees for 5 minutes.

Fortune Cookie

Ingredients

- 1 egg white

- 1/8 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 pinch salt
- 1/4 cup unbleached all-purpose flour
- 1/4 cup white sugar

Directions

Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. Butter a cookie sheet. Write fortunes on strips of paper about 4 inches long and 1/2 inch wide. Generously grease 2 cookie sheets.

Mix the egg white and vanilla until foamy but not stiff. Sift the flour, salt, and sugar and blend into the egg white mixture.

Place teaspoonfuls of the batter at least 4 inches apart on one of the prepared cookie sheets. Tilt the sheet to move the batter into round shapes about 3 inches in diameter. Be careful to make batter as round and even as possible. Do not make too many, because the cookie have to be really hot to form them and once they cool it is too late. Start with 2 or 3 to a sheet and see how many you can do.

Bake for 5 minutes or until cookie has turned a golden color 1/2 inch wide around the outer edge of the circle. The center will remain pale. While one sheet is baking, prepare the other.

Remove from oven and quickly move cookie with a wide spatula and place upside down on a wooden board. Quickly place the fortune on the cookie, close to the middle and fold the cookie in half. Place the folded edge across the rim of a measuring cup and pull the pointed edges down, one on the inside of the cup and one on the outside. Place folded cookies into the cups of a muffin tin or egg carton to hold their shape until firm.

Combine 1/2 of the water and a handful of the spinach in a jar of a blender. Blend at high speed for 30 seconds. Keep adding spinach until about half is blended. Add a little more water, if necessary, to puree.

In a large skillet, heat the butter over moderate heat. Add the ginger and saute for one minute. Add the onions and salt and continue sauteing for 5 more minutes.

Stirring after each addition, add the cumin, turmeric, coriander, and garam masala. Then stir in the leafy and pureed spinach. Reduce the heat and cook the mixture uncovered, for 20 to 30 minutes. Most of the liquid should evaporate. At the last minute, gently add the paneer. Serve hot.

Chicken Makhani

Ingredients

- 2 pounds of (bony) chicken
- 1 cup yogurt (dahi)
- 1" piece of ginger
- 8 cloves garlic
- 2 tbs lime juice
- 4" stick of cinnamon
- 8 cloves
- 8 cardamoms
- 10 black peppercorns
- 1 tbs oil
- 2.25 pounds tomatoes
- 1 tsp. dried fenugreek leaves (optional)
- 1 tbs. white pepper powder (essential)
- 1 ounce cream (optional but recommended for a touch of class)
- 1 !!pound!! butter. You can get away with 0.6 lb if 1 lb is too much.
- salt to taste
if you use yellow butter, then scale down the salt accordingly. If you use white butter, then you will need more salt.
- coriander (cilantro): optional topping.

Directions

1. clean chicken and remove the skin
2. make a smooth paste of yogurt, garlic, ginger, lime juice, cinnamon, cloves, cardamoms, peppercorns and the oil. Marinate the chicken in this for 6 hours.
3. Bake the chicken in a preheated oven for 10 minutes at 250 F (130 C). Put it aside. It kind of makes sense to finish steps 1-3 before starting step 4.
4. We need to get a tomato sauce. Cut tomatoes, put 'em in a pan (no water) and boil. When the quantity has dropped by half, strain through a fine sieve. What comes out of the sieve is the tomato sauce. (This is hard work with a clumsy sieve).
5. Take a pan, start heating the sauce, add the butter. When the butter is melted, add the white pepper powder, salt, fenugreek leaves and cream.
6. Mix the chicken pieces into this sauce. You may like chopped coriander (cilantro) as topping. Serve hot. This works best with good rice (i.e. basmati).

Comments:

If you don't like struggling with chicken bones, this recipe works perfectly with boneless chicken. You need to estimate how much boneless chicken to use: I guess 2 pounds of chicken is around 1.25 pounds of boneless chicken.

Chicken Curry

North Indian Style

Ingredients

- 1 lb Chicken-drumsticks, thighs, breast pieces
- 1 small carton Plain yogurt
- 2 medium Onions very finely chopped
- 4 tbl Vegetable oil
- 2 Cloves
- 1/2 tsp Mustard powder
- 2 pods Cardamom
- 1/2 tsp Cumin powder
- 1 tsp garam masala
- 1 tsp Chili Powder
- 1/2" piece Ginger
- 4 cloves Garlic
- 1/3 tsp Coriander Seeds
- to taste Salt
- 1/2 tsp Freshly ground pepper

Directions

Remove fat from the chicken and then salt and pepper it. Sprinkle with chili powder. Add yogurt and mix well until the chicken is covered liberally with yogurt. Use your hands. Set aside for 1 hour before cooking. If kept in the refrigerator, set aside for at least 4 hours.

Heat oil in a large heavy pan. When oil is hot, add mustard seeds, if you are using them. Add cloves, cardamom, and coriander seeds and fry for 30 seconds. Add the onion and fry for two minutes until the onion begins to turn brown. Lower heat to medium. Add the ginger and garlic paste and fry for 4-6 minutes. Add mustard powder, if using it, add garam masala, and add cumin powder.

Brush excess yogurt off the chicken and put it in a large pot. Add ingredients from the frying pan. Cook uncovered over high heat for 4 minutes. Reduce heat to low and cover. Cook for 25 minutes or until the chicken is tender, stirring every 5 minutes.

Important note:

----- When chicken is cooked with a cover on the pot, it releases water that becomes a part of the sauce. If after 10 minutes, there isn't enough sauce in the pot, add 1/4 cup water. Conversely, if there is too much liquid in the pot, cook uncovered until the liquid evaporates. Variations:

There are several variations to the above recipe:

- 1.) Leave out the yogurt. Add 1/4 cup of water just before turning the heat to low and covering the pot.
- 2.) Boil two potatoes for 10 minutes before slicing them thinly. Add sliced potatoes to the pot when you start cooking the chicken.
- 3.) This variation is usually called "Malai Chicken" or literally "creamy" chicken. Leave out the yogurt. When the chicken is 3/4 done, add one small can of tomato paste. Just before removing add a small carton of whipping cream, and cook for a few minutes.

Chicken Curry (Murga)

(4-6 Servings)

Ingredients

- 2-2 1/2 lb Skinned chicken
- 1 t garam masala
- 3 t Salt
- 1 c Finely chopped tomato
- 1/4 c Vegetable oil
- 1/2 c Water
- 1 1/2 c Finely chopped onion
- 1 1/2 t Fresh ginger, chopped
- 1 t Finely chopped garlic
- 1 t Vinegar
- 1 Dried chili (optional)

Directions

Cut chicken, separate legs and thighs, back and split breast. Heat oil over high heat. Add onions and fry until golden brown. Take care not to burn them. Add garlic, ginger and tomatoes. Fry until a smooth paste is obtained. Add chicken, add water, bring to a boil, and add salt. Cover pot and lower heat. Add chili to make it hot if desired. Stir constantly to avoid burning and coat the chicken pieces evenly.

After the chicken is done, add vinegar and cook for another 5 minutes on very low heat. Sprinkle on garam masala and serve.

Tandoori Chicken

(2-3 Servings)

Ingredients

- 6 pieces Thawed chicken, skinned
- 2 tsp Ground Coriander
- 2 tsp Masala (Tandoori paste is available)
- to taste Red pepper powder
- Dash Garlic powder
- to taste Salt
- 1 tsp Ground jeera
- Soy sauce (or yogurt) (needed only if tandoori masala is used)

Directions

If you are using the ready made tandoori paste then life is a lot easier. Replace all occurrences of masala and soy sauce (or yogurt) with the tandoori paste.

Take the chicken and make deep cuts in it (so that the Masalas seeps in quickly). If you are using soy sauce as the base, put some on the chicken pieces and let it seep in the cuts.

Rub in the Masalas as a mixture or one at a time. The idea is to let the Masalas seep in the cuts with the soy sauce. You can leave it for little while to seep in.

If you are using yogurt, you'll get a more authentic taste since the original TC is after all marinated in it. In this case, mix the Masalas in the yogurt first and then rub the stuff into the chicken cuts as before. The yogurt tends to leave a considerable amount of water behind. DON'T THROW THIS AWAY. Let it evaporate in the oven with the chicken. This will keep the pieces from getting dry if over-cooked. I have not faced the same problem with the soy sauce version (of dry chicken).

Cook the chicken until it starts turning brown. and the cuts you made start "expanding."

Dal Kofta Curry (Steamed Toor Balls in Buttermilk)

Ingredients

For kofka balls:

- 1 cup Toor dal* *toor dal is also known as toovar dal
- 1/2" piece ginger
- 4 green chilies
- 2 cloves garlic
- 1 small onion
- 1 handful cillantro leaves (optional) For Curry:
- 4 cup buttermilk or yoghurt
- 4 green chilies, finely chopped
- 1 " piece ginger, grated or finely chopped
- 1 teasp. each ground coriander, cumin, channa dal [roasted if desired]
- 1/4 teaspoon fenugreek
- 1/2 teaspoon turmeric
- 1/4 cup, approx.desiccated unsweetened coconut, ground if desired For flavored oil:
- 2 tablespoon oil
- 1/2 teaspoon black mustard seeds
- a few curry leaves

Directions

1. Wash and soak toor dal for a few hours. Drain and grind to a course paste along with onion, ginger, garlic, and chilies. (I do this by chopping the large ingredients and blending with the dal in batches. Add enough water so the blender pastes, but not so much that it turns to watery mush.) Mix in salt and (optionally) cillantro leaves. Form into balls and steam 20 minutes. Remove from heat and cool balls. They will obtain a somewhat rubbery texture as they cool.

2. Gently heat buttermilk/yogurt in a pan. Add spices (ground coriander, cumin, channa dal, fenugreek, turmeric) and enough dried coconut to give a nice flavor and slightly thicken the sauce. (I add all these ingredients to a coffee grinder and grind to a powder.) Add ginger and chilies. Add salt to taste. Adjust spices. It will taste like it's missing something until you add the flavored oil.

3. Carefully place kofta balls into sauce.

4. Heat a little oil in a separate frying pan over medium heat, add mustard seeds and curry leaves. When mustard seeds stop bursting, add oil into the curry. You may want to partially cover pan to prevent seeds from popping grease all over your kitchen.

If you use non-fat yogurt, there is only 2 T oil in the whole dish!

Enjoy.

Aloo-Pyaz Ka Parantha

Ingredients

- 1 Lb. Large russet potatoes boiled (that is 2 big potatoes or 4 medium sized)
- 1 medium onion, finely chopped
- 1 green chili, finely chopped
- 1-inch piece ginger, finely chopped
- ½ tsp. garam masala
- ½ tsp. ground pomegranate seeds
- Salt, chili powder - to taste
- Ghee, or margarine to cook

Directions

As a rule, 1 medium potato will make 1 Parantha.

To make filling, put peeled potatoes, onion, ginger, salt, chili powder, ground pomegranate seeds and garam masala in a bowl. Press potatoes with your hands and mix well with all other ingredients. Make 5-6 equal portions of the filling. The taste of Parantha depends on the amount of filling.

When ready to eat, Heat Tava and make a ball from dough. Roll out thickly, just a little larger than puri. Place filling in the center and close up carefully by bringing all edges together and making a ball again. Now roll into the ball and roll out as thin as possible without letting the stuffing break through.

Toss Parantha on Tava and cook. Change side. When cooked, flip over again. Now tap ghee lightly and flip one more time.. Press Parantha gently with your kitchen towel. This will make Parantha crisp and brown. Remove from Tava and put ¼ tsp. ghee on Parantha and serve hot. Repeat procedure until finished.

Makhni Maa

Ingredients

- 1 ½ cup Sabut Maa (urad) (whole black gram)
- ½ cup Rajma (kidney beans)
- 10 cups water
- 1 Tomato chopped
- 1 tsp. Tomato paste
- 1 onion chopped
- ¼ tsp. Hing (asafetida) -optional
- 3 tbs. Sour Cream - optional
- 1-inch piece ginger chopped or 1 tsp. Ginger paste
- 6-cloves garlic or 1 tsp. Garlic paste
- 1 stick butter
- ½ tsp. Garam masala
- Salt and Red chili powder - to taste

Directions

Clean and wash Sabut Maa and Rajma. Put Dal and beans in a pressure cooker and add water, ginger, tomato, garlic, salt and red chili powder. Place cooker on maximum heat and bring it to full cooking pressure. Now reduce the heat to medium low and cook for an hour. Do not take the steam out and leave the pressure cooker to cool gradually.

In a pan fry onions with ¾ butter till golden. Add tomato paste and sour cream. Cook for three minutes or till butter separates. Now put Hing and garam masala. Fry for another minute and pour the mixture into Dal.

Just before serving add the remaining ¼ stick of butter to the Dal. Serve hot with chapati or naan.

Slow Cooker Procedure

Another method to prepare Dals is to put them in slow cooker and forget about them. When I was working, I used slow cooker at least three times a week but now that I am at home, I don't use it as often. Using slow cooker is a habit and some people swear that Dals taste much better. I leave it to you to judge that for yourself but I do recommend that you cook beans in slow cooker when you are entertaining. Consider it a tip for saving time and focusing on other dishes when you have too much on your hands.

Clean and wash sabat maa and rajma. Put Dal and beans in slow cooker and add water, ginger, tomato, garlic, salt and red chili powder. Place cooker on high and cook overnight (about 8 hours).

In a pan fry onions with 1 stick of butter till golden. Add tomato paste and sour cream. Cook for two minutes or till butter separates. Now put hing and garam masala. Fry for another minute and pour the mixture into Dal.

Rasgoola

Ingredients

- 1 ltr Homogenized Milk
- 2 tsp White Vinegar
- 1 1/2 C Sugar
- 3 C Water

Directions

Bring the milk to a boil and add vinegar to the boiling milk to separate the whey. Throw away the liquid part by sifting the stuff onto a muslin cloth. Pour some cold water over the curd to cool and wash it. Discard the water and hang the cloth for 15-20 minutes to let the excess water drip off.

Put the curd in a food processor or blender and blend at high speed to get a smooth consistency. You may add just a little (1 tsp or so) water while blending, if the curd is too dry and will not blend. Be very careful so as not to add any extra water. Remove the paste and make small balls (1-2" in diameter).

Boil water in a wide vessel. Make sure that there is at least 2-3" of water in the vessel. If not, add more water and increase the quantity of sugar proportionately. Add sugar to the boiling water to make a light syrup.

Continue boiling the syrup and gently drop the curd balls in the boiling syrup. Cook the balls in the boiling syrup for 30-40 minutes. Remove from the heat and let the stuff cool down. Put the balls and the syrup in a storage container and refrigerate (don't freeze). Serve cold.

Mango Ice Cream

This is a great desert which can be made with very little effort. You can replace the Mango pulp with any other pureed fruit.

Ingredients

- 1 can Condensed Milk
- 12 oz. Whipped cream(Cool whip)
- 1 can Mango pulp (Alphonso)

It is very confusing to describe quantities as 1 can. Well, I do not remember the exact numbers so let me describe the sizes. The Mango pulp can is about 6" high and 3" in diameter. I think it is the only size available in an Indian store. The condensed milk can is about 3" high and about 2.5" in diameter and should be available in your neighbourhood grocery store.

Directions

Mix all of the pulp, condensed milk and whipped cream in a bowl. Put in the freezer for about 8 hours.
